INTRODUCTION

Use this guide to take off the back cover of your bq Aquaris M5.

TOOLS:

- iFixit Opening Tools (1)

Step 1 — Back Cover

- Insert the tip of an iFixit opening tool between the back cover and the mid frame of the phone.
 - ⓘ Between the 2 SIM card slots is a good place to start.
- Slide the opening tool to the bottom of the phone, to snap out the plastic clips, connecting the back cover and mid frame.

Step 2

- Slide the opening tool back to the top of the phone, to disconnect all the clips on the edge.
- Slide around the corner and along the top edge, to also disconnect these clips.

Step 3

 Be careful not to bend the back cover too hard to prevent some of the clips breaking.

- Grab the back cover by the loosened edge.
- Gently bend and twist the flexible back cover a bit to disconnect the remaining clips.
- Take off the back cover.

To reassemble your device, follow these instructions in reverse order.
