INTRODUCTION

Replacing the battery for the Motorola V750 Adventure can be an easy process. With a simple snap of the cover and battery, a new one can be replaced in seconds.

TOOLS:

- Spudger (1)

Step 1 — Battery

- Turn phone so the back panel is facing up. Then proceed to locate the latch at the top, above the Verizon logo.

Step 2

- With fingernail, push down on the latch and remove back cover.

Step 3

- Turn the phone over so that the battery text is facing right side up. With a spudger, lift from the bottom of the battery until it disconnects.

Step 4

- With a new battery, put into battery slot top end first, then push down with finger to secure battery.

Step 5

- Attach back cover.

To reassemble your device, follow these instructions in reverse order.
